Letter to Shareholders

March 10, 2023

Dear Shareholders,

1. 2022 Annual Report

(1) Implementation results of the business plan

The global supply chain underwent further evolution in 2022 due to the pandemic and the ongoing war between Russia and Ukraine, which led to frequent shortages of medicine. Despite the challenges, we persevered through hardships and obstacles.

Geopolitical shifts have impacted market functioning, with sanctions disrupting the supply chain for raw materials, resulting in soaring prices. Alongside the price increases, shipping schedules have become difficult to comprehend. To compensate for the shortage of original and imported medicine in Taiwan, we worked tirelessly to produce during this turbulent time. All employees, whether in production or business, collaborated to solve problems and deliver products to customers as quickly as possible, leading to consistent performance and moderate growth. We are grateful to our dedicated and hardworking team members.

On the one hand, research and development of products faced obstacles due to the pandemic, while on the other hand, they had to respond to unforeseen circumstances. The US-developed PMR, which treats intermittent claudication and prevents secondary strokes, was challenging to enroll and operate logistically, given the rising number of Covid-19 cases in early 2022. However, thanks to the efforts of all clinical department colleagues, the pharmacokinetic test following the prescription modification was completed, and the results met expectations. The pivotal trial will be re-conducted in 2023 after dosage adjustments.

GX17, a drug for rare disease with the indication of Antiphospholipid syndrome (APS), completed its IND submission in 2022. The US FDA issued a “Study May Proceed” letter, and clinical trial preparations are underway. Furthermore, a multinational patent application for this indication and crystal form is actively in progress.

NaviFUS Corporation's innovative medical device NF02, designed to care for the health of Taiwanese people, was evaluated in mid-2022. In the prioritization of the project, the Alzheimer's disease program has been suspended to participate in a multinational, multi-center clinical trial designed by Stanford and Harvard BWH for the indication of epilepsy. With the trial plan submitted to the Hospital Ethics Committee, the trial is set to begin in H1 2023.

Genovate invested in the innovative medical device research and development company NaviFUS Corporation, whose Model 101 Neuronavigation-guided focused ultrasound system was shortlisted for the 2022 Edison Award and won the Gold Prize for Outpatient Treatment in the Science & Medical Field. It beat medical giants

Abbott and Spark Medical, with a 4.4 billion USD market cap, bringing honor to Taiwan. In mid-2022, the company was registered on the emerging stock market, and it can be described as a rising star with international accreditation.

Uni Pharma Co., Ltd., which had been reinvesting, implemented a plan to streamline the Hsinchu branch in 2022, substantially reducing operating expenses and contributing to the practice of balancing the books. In the United States and Taiwan, the FDA approved the ultrasonic 3D surgical needle tracking system (NaviRFA), developed in collaboration with NaviFUS Corporation. Currently, a sales strategy is being developed and gradually implemented. Furthermore, the review of NaviRFA+DC, a clinical trial proposal for treating liver cancer with dendritic cell (DC) immunotherapy, was completed by the clinical trial center. It has been submitted to the CDE and is awaiting official review in accordance with the “Regulations Governing the Application or Use of Specific Medical Techniques or Examinations, or Medical Devices.”

Despite the unpredictability of the pandemic, our factory has continued to implement software and hardware upgrades, such as the installation of tablet visual inspection machines, fluid bed dryers, and PTP banding machines. These upgrades have alleviated operational bottlenecks, improved quality and efficiency, and lowered production costs. In addition, to meet the increasingly stringent PIC/S GMP regulations, we have expanded our staff and fortified our quality control procedures.

Despite obstacles such as insecurity in external raw material supplies, a shortage of medications, and the pandemic, we have persevered as a team. Two examples of our specialty generic drugs, which require high technical expertise, are the “Intubation Big Three” (Genso Injection, Winbest Injection, and Rocuron Injection) and the “Heart-Resuscitation Double” (Gendobu Injection and Angidil Injection). Genovate's commitment to high-quality production and supply has fulfilled our business philosophy of “caring for the health of Taiwanese people” by providing timely medical support for critically ill patients affected by medication shortages.

Throughout all these challenges, our entire factory has worked collaboratively to address any issues that arise.

(2) Budget Implementation Status

As per the “Regulations Governing the Publication of Financial Forecasts of Public Companies,” the company has not released any public financial projections for the fiscal year 2022. Therefore, this particular item is not applicable.

(3) Financial Revenue and Expenditure

In the fiscal year 2022, the consolidated revenue was NT$439 million, indicating a growth of NT$4.51 million from the previous year and an annual growth rate of 1.04%. The primary factor driving this growth was the increase in sales of niche generics. However, the company reported a net loss after taxes of NT$12.32 million this year, which was a decrease of NT$12.69 million from last year and equated to a loss of NT$0.11 per share. The decline in profits for this year was primarily due to the increase in operating expenses compared to the previous year, along with the profit-seeking enterprise income tax for this year's equity sale.

Financial Revenue and Expenditure:

Unit: NT$ thousands

Item	2022	2021

Earnings per share	(0.11)	0.00

(4) Research and Development

Genovate's new drug development plan is gradually expanding internationally, leveraging the combined advantages of professionals and alliances.

1. PMR Antithrombotics:

PMR's main component is Cilostazol, which has an antiplatelet and vasodilation effect and can improve the symptoms of intermittent claudication and prevent a second stroke. The primary ingredient in this product is Cilostazol, which inhibits platelet aggregation and vasodilation, and thereby alleviates symptoms of intermittent claudication and prevents a second stroke. Existing instant-release dosage forms on the market release many ingredients within a few hours, leading to side effects such as headaches and palpitations that discourage patients from taking them.

To overcome this issue, PMR utilizes a new extended-release technology that ensures the active ingredients are accessible within 24 hours, reaching a concentration level required for treatment and reducing the incidence rate and severity of side effects. This decreases the patient's fear of medication and enhances the treatment's overall efficacy.

Several clinical evaluation tasks assigned by the US FDA during the pre-NDA meeting are currently being completed. The pharmacokinetic test was conducted in 2022, after finalizing the prescription revision, and the results were as anticipated. After an internal review of multiple research and development data, the dose will be adjusted and retested in 2023.

2. GX17 immunomodulatory drugs:

This development item is related to the originally approved ingredient "active enantiomer," and it is a new 505(b)(2) drug with a new dosage.

Hydroxychloroquine, the active ingredient in GX17, is used to treat systemic lupus erythematosus and rheumatoid arthritis. Since this drug's structure contains a stereocenter, it generates two distinct optical isomers with distinct pharmacokinetic characteristics in vivo. According to the results of animal testing, GX17 is anticipated to be safer for long-term medication patients. The development of GX17 is predicated on improved preparation methodology, followed by the development of new drugs for preparations and clinical design indications.

The FDA has responded to the development of the Antiphospholipid Syndrome indication (APS), deeming the design of the initial human pharmacokinetic test to be fair, and the IND submission was finalized in 2022. The US FDA has issued a "Study May Proceed Letter," and planning for clinical trials is currently underway. Additionally, multi-country patent applications for the APS utility patent and the GX17 crystal form patent are being actively crafted.

3. NF02 Epilepsy Treatment Device:

The blood-brain barrier presents a major challenge for the treatment of brain disorders, as it impedes the vast majority of medications from crossing the brain's blood vessels. However, the NaviFUS® Model 101 Neuronavigation-guided focused ultrasound equipment, developed by the reinvestment business NaviFUS Corporation, has shown promising results in overcoming this obstacle. By emitting signals to blood vessels close to brain lesion tissue through the skull from outside the body, this equipment induces the formation of microbubbles within the blood vessels via its mechanical energy. As a result of the deformation and vibration that compress the blood vessel wall, the blood-brain barrier becomes temporarily permeable, enabling up to ten times more efficient drug penetration from the blood vessel into the lesion area. This breakthrough is expected to significantly enhance the efficacy of treatments for brain diseases. In addition, NaviFUS employs a surgical navigation system to accurately direct the ultrasound beam to the target area.

Genovate and NaviFUS established a holding company in another country to invest in Australia and launch a research and development venture there. The goal was to take advantage of Melbourne's neuromedical research and development center, as well as the favorable local tax and regulatory environment, to plan Alzheimer's disease trials using an Academic-Industry approach. The Human Research Ethics Committees of the Australia Therapeutic Goods Administration approved the clinical study application in August 2020, but the start of the project was delayed due to the epidemic.

After reassessing priorities in 2022, it was decided to discontinue the Alzheimer's Project and participate in a multinational, multi-center clinical trial jointly established by Stanford and Harvard BWH, with epilepsy as the target indication. The system's components have been assembled and tested, and the epilepsy trial proposal has been submitted to the Hospital Ethics Committee. The trial is expected to commence in the first half of 2023.

2. 2023 Business Plan

(1) Operating principle

1. Invest in factory software and hardware, accelerate the installation of automated machinery and tools, enhance PIC/S GMP production quality, expand production capacity, pursue high-profit OEM products via foreign certification (e.g., US FDA, Japan PMDA), and expand the regional market while evaluating the viability of a new plant.
2. Diversify into other areas of the biomedical industry, such as innovative medical devices, pet cancer screening, and cytotherapy, through reinvestment and strategic alliances.
3. Implement the innovative R&D model “Co-Investment, Joint Development” to develop “Niche-in-Class drugs” and “505(b)(2) innovative dosage forms” for new drugs. By employing the strategy of “vertical integration, each excelling in its strengths,” we aim to maximize the value of new pharmaceuticals.
4. Deepen the reinvestment business by leveraging Genovate's advantages and experience to support other reinvestment firms, strengthen strategic partnerships, and create mutually beneficial outcomes.
5. Pursue a conglomerate organizational architecture with niche products and strategic partners in the US and Japan for cooperative investments and product development. Additionally, explore international markets.
6. Improve our IR/PR to increase the confidence of professional institutions in investing in the biotechnology industry and enhance our company's public image

(2) Business Objective—projected sales volume and its basis

The business objective for 2023 will be raised gradually in accordance with the target approved by the board of directors. All business plans are realistically implemented and based on historical production and sales data, device lifecycles, and anticipated external environmental change.

(3) Production and Marketing Policies

1. Establish a flexible procurement system and conduct an exhaustive search for raw material suppliers in order to reduce or equalize raw material procurement expenses.
2. Invest in new automated machinery and tools with larger batch sizes to enhance the production process with automation. This will increase productivity, reduce total product costs, and maximize product profits.
3. Prepare for the PIC/S GMP follow-up inspection, enhance production technology, and explore opportunities with domestic and international pharmaceutical OEMs to expand production capacity.

4. Develop or acquire products that can complement Genovate's own products in the short term, enhance product lines in professional fields, remove sales barriers, and increase revenue.
5. Continue expanding the market for own-brand new drugs such as Mycocep. Use the original manufacturer's model to connect with groups such as patient and medical associations, and develop large-scale marketing plans for hospitals in order to achieve breakthroughs and drug listing.
6. Integrate internal and external R&D efforts, implement project management, shorten product launch times, and demonstrate competitive advantages.

3. Future Development Strategy

- (1) To achieve the highest quality in PIC/S GMP manufacturing capabilities, offer OEM/ODM services for regional markets, increase production efficiency, and pave the way for international product sales, it is crucial to continuously improve production software and hardware. Additionally, the feasibility of constructing an additional plant must be evaluated.
- (2) By combining the development of 505(b)(2) new drugs (PMR and GX17) in the United States with a regional alliance of Niche-in-class new drugs (DBPR108), as well as the clinical development of the innovative medical device NaviFus in Australia, we can strengthen our research and development capabilities and establish our brand.
- (3) Collaborating with reinvestment strategic alliance partners (NaviFus, Unipharm, etc.), we can actively promote the development of new drugs, innovative medical devices, and cell therapy, intersect with precision medicine, and enhance Genovate's global competitiveness.

4. The effects of the external competitive, regulatory, and overall business environment

Despite restrictions on people's activities in 2022, essential medical supplies have not been affected. In Taiwan's domestic market, generic drugs dominate the output value of the pharmaceutical industry. The slow increase in revenue is attributed to the limited number of export sales. Favorable policies have encouraged many manufacturers to invest in the development of new drugs. However, achieving mainstream production value remains a challenge, and there is still room for growth.

The “Act for the Development of Biotech and Pharmaceutical Industry” was amended in late 2021 to include emerging projects such as new dosage medications, regenerative medicine, digital health, and innovative technology platforms. These projects combine the advantages of Taiwan's medical technology and information technology to develop more precise treatments. Biotechnology and pharmaceutical products for diagnosis and prevention, along with newly established Contract Development and Manufacturing Organization (CDMO) businesses, will contribute to the expansion of Taiwan's biotechnology and pharmaceutical manufacturing capabilities.

As of July 2022, 166 companies and 438 products have passed the qualification test for biotechnology and pharmaceutical firms developing new treatments and medications according to the regulations. The investment deduction for tax incentives includes R&D, machinery and equipment, shareholder investment, and low-tax incentives such as executive compensation and technology invested as capital stock.

The business climate is generally positive. The structure of health insurance benefits limits the majority of domestic pharmaceutical companies, causing them to struggle in the competitive bidding process, which reduces their profits. They can only produce niche products by leveraging upstream, midstream, and downstream advantages. Biotechnology can become a world-class industry by collaborating with government resources and private investment, overcoming market barriers, and entering the global market.

Furthermore, the COVID-19 pandemic has affected the entire world, posing a risk to the biotechnology industry's supply chain. Experts in various digital technology fields must collaborate to treat, prevent, and predict diseases. The pandemic has also presented a formidable challenge: how to generate the energy necessary for drug production.

Genovate has been deeply rooted in Taiwan for many years, and has now reached its 30s. It has witnessed the development and growth of Taiwan's biotech and pharmaceutical industry, as well as the rise and fall of various manufacturers. Genovate knows well that the only way to survive is to focus on their own business, innovate in research and development, and implement practical measures. Genovate's mission has always been to “develop new drugs and care for the health of the people,” and they have established a risk-balanced product line to ensure stable operation. In today's rapidly changing times, they are expanding their reach through strategic investments and partnerships, venturing into innovative medical devices, macromolecular drugs, and cell therapy fields. We adopt a collaborative development model, focusing on related diseases such as cardiovascular, metabolism, central nervous system, and immune regulation, and they seek international regulatory or tax advantages with agility and flexibility, participate in large international research and development projects, synchronize with the world, expand their macroscopic vision, lay out globally, enhance company value, create profits, share with shareholders, and contribute to Taiwan's biotech and pharmaceutical industry.

Best wishes to Genovate and Taiwan's biotechnology and pharmaceutical industries!

We hope that all shareholders will continue to support and encourage Genovate and provide guidance and supervision. Here's wishing all shareholders good health and all the best in everything they do.

Sincerely,

Chen, Jen

Chairman

Genovate Biotechnology CO., LTD.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Group's 2022 consolidated financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter for the Group's 2022 consolidated financial statements is stated as follows:

Recognition of sales revenue

Description

Given the sales revenue has a high degree of inherent risk and is material to the financial statements, we consider the recognition of sales revenue as a key audit matter. Refer to Note 4(27) for accounting policies on operating revenue recognition, and Note 6(21) for details of operating revenue.

How our audit addressed the matter

Our audit procedures in relation to the above key audit matter included:

1. Tested the design and implementation effectiveness of the internal control system of sales transactions.
2. Evaluated the reasonableness of the trade terms and credit line to the customers.
3. Confirmed the existence of the revenue and the accuracy of revenue recognition by performing substantive tests on sales transactions, selecting and verifying the transaction documents in relation to order information and shipping records, and related vouchers in relation to sales returns and discounts occurring subsequent to the reporting period.

Other matter – Parent company only financial reports

We have audited and expressed an unqualified opinion on the parent company only financial statements of Genovate Biotechnology Co., Ltd. as at and for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations that came into effect as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities of the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Company's 2022 parent company only financial statements. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the parent company only financial statements as a whole and, in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter for the Company's 2022 parent company only financial statements is as follow:

Description

Given the sales revenue has a high degree of inherent risk and is material to the parent company only financial statements, we consider the recognition of sales revenue as a key audit matter. Refer to Note 4(26) for accounting policies on operating revenue recognition, and Note 6(21) for details of operating revenue.

How our audit addressed the matter

Our audit procedures in relation to the above key audit matter included:

1. Tested the design and implementation effectiveness of the internal control system of sales transactions.
2. Evaluated the reasonableness of the trade terms and credit line to the customers.
3. Confirmed the existence of the revenue and the accuracy of revenue recognition by performing substantive tests on sales transactions, selecting and verifying the transaction documents in relation to order information and shipping records, and related vouchers in relation to sales returns and discounts occurring subsequent to the reporting period.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the parent company only financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent company only financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the parent company only financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company only financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these parent company only financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the parent company only financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company only financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities of the Company to express an opinion on the parent company only financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the parent company only financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

A shareholder holding one percent or more of the total number of issued shares may submit to The Company a proposal for discussion at a regular shareholders meeting. The number of items so proposed is limited to one only, and no proposal containing more than one item will be included in the meeting agenda. When the circumstances of any subparagraph of Article 172-1, paragraph 4 of the Company Act apply to a proposal put forward by a shareholder, the Board of Directors may exclude it from the agenda. A shareholder may propose a recommendation for urging the corporation to promote public interests or fulfill its social responsibilities, provided procedurally the number of items so proposed is limited only to one in accordance with Article 172-1 of the Company Act, and no proposal containing more than one item will be included in the meeting agenda.

Prior to the book closure date before a regular shareholders meeting is held, The Company shall publicly announce its acceptance of shareholder proposals in writing or electronically, and the location and time period for their submission; the period for submission of shareholder proposals may not be less than 10 days.

At the shareholders meeting the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons for exclusion of any shareholder proposals not included in the agenda.

Article 4: For each shareholders meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy to attend the meeting by providing the proxy form issued by The Company and stating the scope of the proxy's authorization.

A shareholder may issue only one proxy form and appoint only one proxy for any given shareholders meeting, and shall deliver the proxy form to The Company before five days before the date of the shareholders meeting. When duplicate proxy forms are delivered, the one received earliest shall prevail unless a declaration is made to cancel the previous proxy appointment.

After a proxy form has been delivered to The Company, if the shareholder intends to attend the meeting in person or to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronically, a written notice of proxy cancellation shall be submitted to The Company before two business days before the meeting date. If the cancellation notice is submitted after that time, votes cast at the meeting by the proxy shall prevail.

Article 5: (Principles determining the time and place of a shareholders meeting)

The venue for a shareholders meeting shall be the premises of The Company, or a place easily accessible to shareholders and suitable for a shareholders meeting. The meeting may begin no earlier than 9 a.m. and no later than 3 p.m. Full consideration shall be given to the opinions of the independent directors with respect to the place and time of the meeting.

Article 6: (Preparation of documents such as the attendance book)

The Company shall specify in its shareholders meeting notices the time during which attendance registrations for shareholders) will be accepted, the place to register for attendance, and other matters for attention.

The time during which shareholder attendance registrations will be accepted, as stated in the preceding paragraph, shall be at least 30 minutes prior to the time the meeting commences. The place at which attendance registrations are accepted shall be clearly marked and a sufficient number of suitable personnel assigned to handle the registrations.

Shareholders or proxies (collectively "shareholders") shall attend shareholders meetings based on attendance cards, sign-in cards, or other certificates of attendance. The Company may not arbitrarily add requirements for other documents beyond those showing eligibility to attend presented by shareholders. Solicitors soliciting proxy forms shall also bring identification documents for verification.

The Company shall furnish the attending shareholders with an attendance book to sign, or attending shareholders may hand in a sign-in card in lieu of signing in.

The Company shall furnish attending shareholders with the meeting agenda book, annual report, attendance card, speaker's slips, voting slips, and other meeting materials. Where there is an election of directors or supervisors, pre-printed ballots shall also be furnished. When the government or a juristic person is a shareholder, it may be represented by more than one representative at a shareholders meeting. When a juristic person is appointed to attend as proxy, it may designate only one person to represent it in the meeting.

Article 7: (The chair and non-voting participants of a shareholders meeting)

If a shareholders meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the meeting shall be chaired by the chairperson of the board. When the chairperson of the board is on leave or for any reason unable to exercise the powers of the chairperson, the vice chairperson shall act in place of the chairperson; if there is no vice chairperson or the vice chairperson also is on leave or for any reason unable to exercise the powers of the vice chairperson, the chairperson shall appoint one of the managing directors to act as chair, or, if there are no managing directors, one of the directors shall be appointed to act as chair. Where the chairperson does not make such a designation, the managing directors or the directors shall select from among themselves one person to serve as chair.

When a managing director or a director serves as chair, as referred to in the preceding paragraph, the managing director or director shall be one who has held that position for six months or more and who understands the financial and business conditions of the company. The same shall be true for a representative of a juristic person director that serves as chair.

It is advisable that shareholders meetings convened by the Board of Directors be chaired by the chairperson of the board in person and attended by a majority of the directors, at least one supervisor in person, and at least one member of each functional committee on behalf of the committee. The attendance shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

If a shareholders meeting is convened by a party with power to convene but other than the Board of Directors, the convening party shall chair the meeting. When there are two or more such convening parties, they shall mutually select a chair from among themselves.

The Company may appoint its attorneys, certified public accountants, or related persons retained by it to attend a shareholders meeting in a non-voting capacity.

Article 8: (Documentation of a shareholders meeting by audio or video)

The Company, beginning from the time it accepts shareholder attendance registrations, shall make an uninterrupted audio and video recording of the registration procedure, the proceedings of the shareholders meeting, and the voting and vote counting procedures.

The recorded materials of the preceding paragraph shall be retained for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the recording shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

Article 9: Attendance at shareholders meetings shall be calculated based on numbers of shares. The number of shares in attendance shall be calculated according to the shares indicated by the attendance book and sign-in cards handed in plus the number of shares whose voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronically.

The chair shall call the meeting to order at the appointed meeting time and disclose information concerning the number of nonvoting shares and number of shares represented by shareholders attending the meeting. However, when the attending shareholders do not represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may announce a postponement, provided that no more than two such postponements, for a combined total of no more than one hour, may be made. If the quorum is not met after two postponements and the attending shareholders still represent less than one third of the total number of issued shares, the chair shall declare the meeting adjourned.

If the quorum is not met after two postponements as referred to in the preceding paragraph, but the attending shareholders represent one third or more of the total number of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be adopted pursuant to Article 175, paragraph 1 of the Company Act; all shareholders shall be notified of the tentative resolution and another shareholders meeting shall be convened within one month.

When, prior to conclusion of the meeting, the attending shareholders represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may resubmit the tentative resolution for a vote by the shareholders meeting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 10: (Discussion of proposals)

If a shareholders meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the meeting agenda shall be set by the Board of Directors. Votes shall be cast on each separate proposal in the agenda (including extraordinary motions and amendments to the original proposals set out in the agenda). The meeting shall proceed in the order set by the agenda, which may not be changed without a resolution of the shareholders meeting. The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a shareholders meeting convened by a party with the power to convene that is not the Board of Directors.

The chair may not declare the meeting adjourned prior to completion of deliberation on the meeting agenda of the preceding two paragraphs (including extraordinary motions), except by a resolution of the shareholders meeting. If the chair declares the meeting adjourned in violation of the rules of procedure, the other members of the board of directors shall promptly assist the attending shareholders in electing a new chair in accordance with statutory procedures, by agreement of a majority of the votes represented by the attending shareholders, and then continue the meeting.

The chair shall allow ample opportunity during the meeting for explanation and discussion of proposals and of amendments or extraordinary motions put forward by the shareholders; when the chair is of the opinion that a proposal has been discussed sufficiently to put it to a vote, the chair may announce the discussion closed, call for a vote, and schedule sufficient time for voting.

Article 11: (Shareholder speech)

Before speaking, an attending shareholder must specify on a speaker's slip the subject of the speech, his/her shareholder account number (or attendance card number), and account name. The order in which shareholders speak will be set by the chair.

A shareholder in attendance who has submitted a speaker's slip but does not actually speak shall be deemed to have not spoken. When the content of the speech does not correspond to the subject given on the speaker's slip, the spoken content shall prevail.

Except with the consent of the chair, a shareholder may not speak more than twice on the same proposal, and a single speech may not exceed 5 minutes. If the shareholder's speech violates the rules or exceeds the scope of the agenda item, the chair may terminate the speech.

When an attending shareholder is speaking, other shareholders may not speak or interrupt unless they have sought and obtained the consent of the chair and the shareholder that has the floor; the chair shall stop any violation.

When a juristic person shareholder appoints two or more representatives to attend a shareholders meeting, only one of the representatives so appointed may speak on the same proposal.

After an attending shareholder has spoken, the chair may respond in person or direct relevant personnel to respond.

Article 12: (Calculation of voting shares and recusal system)

Voting at a shareholders meeting shall be calculated based on the number of shares.

With respect to resolutions of shareholders meetings, the number of shares held by a shareholder with no voting rights shall not be calculated as part of the total number of issued shares.

When a shareholder is an interested party in relation to an agenda item, and there is the likelihood that such a relationship would prejudice the interests of The Company, that shareholder may not vote on that item, and may not exercise voting rights as proxy for any other shareholder.

The number of shares for which voting rights may not be exercised under the preceding paragraph shall not be calculated as part of the voting rights represented by attending shareholders.

With the exception of a trust enterprise or a shareholder services agent approved by the competent securities authority, when one person is concurrently appointed as proxy by two or more shareholders, the voting rights represented by that proxy may not exceed three percent of the voting rights represented by the total number of issued shares. If that percentage is exceeded, the voting rights in excess of that percentage shall not be included in the calculation.

Article 13: A shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held, except when the shares are restricted shares or are deemed non-voting shares under Article 179, paragraph 2 of the Company Act.

When The Company holds a shareholder meeting, it shall adopt exercise of voting rights by electronic means and may adopt exercise of voting rights by correspondence. When voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronic means, the method of exercise shall be specified in the shareholders meeting notice. A shareholder exercising voting rights by correspondence or electronic means will be deemed to have attended the meeting in person, but to have waived his/her rights with respect to the extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals of that meeting; it is therefore advisable that The Company avoid the submission of extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals.

A shareholder intending to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronic means under the preceding paragraph shall deliver a written declaration of intent to The Company before two days before the date of the shareholders meeting. When duplicate declarations of intent are delivered, the one received earliest shall prevail, except when a declaration is made to cancel the earlier declaration of intent.

After a shareholder has exercised voting rights by correspondence or electronic means, in the event the shareholder intends to attend the shareholders meeting in person or online, a written declaration of intent to retract the voting rights already exercised under the preceding paragraph shall be made known to The Company, by the same means by which the voting rights were exercised, before two business days before the date of the shareholders meeting. If the notice of retraction is submitted after that time, the voting rights already exercised by correspondence or electronic means shall prevail. When a shareholder has exercised voting rights both by correspondence or electronic means and by appointing a proxy to attend a shareholders meeting, the voting rights exercised by the proxy in the meeting shall prevail.

Except as otherwise provided in the Company Act and in The Company's articles of incorporation, the passage of a proposal shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders. At the time of a vote, for each proposal, the chair or a person designated by the chair shall first announce the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders, followed by a poll of the shareholders. After the conclusion of the meeting, on the same day it is held, the results for each proposal, based on the numbers of votes for and against and the number of abstentions, shall be entered into the MOPS.

When there is an amendment or an alternative to a proposal, the chair shall present the amended or alternative proposal together with the original proposal and decide the order in which they will be put to a vote. When any one among them is passed, the other proposals will then be deemed rejected, and no further voting shall be required. Vote monitoring and counting personnel for the voting on a proposal shall be appointed by the chair, provided that all monitoring personnel shall be shareholders of The Company.

Vote counting for shareholders meeting proposals or elections shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on-site at the meeting, and a record made of the vote.

Article 14: (Election of directors and supervisors)

The election of directors or supervisors at a shareholders meeting shall be held in accordance with the applicable election and appointment rules adopted by The Company, and the voting results shall be announced on-site immediately, including the names of those elected as directors and supervisors and the numbers of votes with which they were elected, and the names of directors and supervisors not elected and number of votes they received.

The ballots for the election referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be sealed with the signatures of the monitoring personnel and kept in proper custody for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the ballots shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

Article 15: Matters relating to the resolutions of a shareholders meeting shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

The meeting minutes shall be signed or sealed by the chair of the meeting and a copy distributed to each shareholder within 20 days after the conclusion of the meeting. The meeting minutes may be produced and distributed in electronic form.

The Company may distribute the meeting minutes of the preceding paragraph by means of a public announcement made through the MOPS.

The meeting minutes shall accurately record the year, month, day, and place of the meeting, the chair's full name, the methods by which resolutions were adopted, and a summary of the deliberations and their voting results (including the number of voting rights), and disclose the number of voting rights won by each candidate in the event of an election of directors or supervisors. The minutes shall be retained for the duration of the existence of The Company.

Article 16: (Public disclosure)

On the day of a shareholders meeting, The Company shall compile in the prescribed format a statistical statement of the number of shares obtained by solicitors through solicitation, the number of shares represented by proxies, and shall make an express disclosure of the same at the place of the shareholders meeting.

If matters put to a resolution at a shareholders meeting constitute material information under applicable laws or regulations or under Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation (or Taipei Exchange Market) regulations, The Company shall upload the content of such resolution to the MOPS within the prescribed time period.

Article 17: (Maintaining order at the meeting place)

Staff handling administrative affairs of a shareholders meeting shall wear identification cards or arm bands.

The chair may direct the proctors or security personnel to help maintain order at the meeting place. When proctors or security personnel help maintain order at the meeting place, they shall wear an identification card or armband bearing the word "Proctor."

At the place of a shareholders meeting, if a shareholder attempts to speak through any device other than the public address equipment set up by The Company, the chair may prevent the shareholder from doing so.

When a shareholder violates the rules of procedure and defies the chair's correction, obstructing the proceedings and refusing to heed calls to stop, the chair may direct the proctors or security personnel to escort the shareholder from the meeting.

Article 18: (Recess and resumption of a shareholders meeting)

When a meeting is in progress, the chair may announce a break based on time considerations. If a force majeure event occurs, the chair may rule the meeting temporarily suspended and announce a time when, in view of the circumstances, the meeting will be resumed.

If the meeting venue is no longer available for continued use and not all of the items (including extraordinary motions) on the meeting agenda have been addressed, the shareholders meeting may adopt a resolution to resume the meeting at another venue.

A resolution may be adopted at a shareholders meeting to defer or resume the meeting within five days in accordance with Article 182 of the Company Act.

Article 19: These Rules shall take effect after having been submitted to and approved by a shareholders meeting. Subsequent amendments thereto shall be effected in the same manner.
